

Community Conversations Pilot

Women in Nuclear (WIN) is hosting a community conversation focused on strategies, tips, and tricks for students and early career professionals, or anyone considering a career change. This interactive discussion will solicit ideas for moving into and building your first nuclear job. Participants will share best practices, innovative ideas, and success stories to inspire and support one another in developing fulfilling, meaningful, and vibrant careers in the nuclear industry.

STUDENTS AND EARLY CAREER DEVELOPMENT

FIND YOUR PLACE

- <https://studentsuccess.utk.edu/career/students/develop-career-tools/>
- <https://studentsuccess.utk.edu/career/career-ready/>
- <https://studentsuccess.utk.edu/career/students/develop-career-tools/interviewing/employer-research/>

GROW YOUR CONFIDENCE

- <https://studentsuccess.utk.edu/career/students/get-tailored-career-guidance/international-disability-diversity-veterans/female-students/>

BUILD YOUR NETWORK

- <https://studentsuccess.utk.edu/career/students/networking/>
- <https://www.coop.utk.edu/wp-content/uploads/2017/09/speed-mentoring-conversation-starters.pdf>

LEARN MORE WITH TED TALKS

- <https://dpglearn.co.uk/blog/professional-development/10-of-best-tedtalks-for-career-development/>

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES AVAILABLE AT:

NEI <https://www.nei.org/home>

Nuclear Matters <https://www.nuclearmatters.com/>

U.S.WIN <https://www.winus.org/>

U.S. WIN on LinkedIn <https://www.linkedin.com/groups/1813640/>

